FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Bank Robbery, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(a), as charged in Counts One (1), Two (2), and Three (3) of the First Superseding Information.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that the Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is Ordered that the Defendant shall pay restitution in the sum of $2,393.00 to the victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the Probation Office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded by the Probation Office to the Fiscal Section of the Clerk's Office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims. If the Defendant makes partial payments, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payments. The Court finds that interest is waived based on Defendants economic history. If any amount remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly installments of at least $80.00 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

All fines are waived as the Court finds that the Defendant does not have the ability to pay the fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the Defendant, STUART McCOY, is hereby committed on Counts One (1) Two (2) and Three (3) the First Superseding Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of Sixty (60) MONTHS. The term consists of Sixty (60) MONTHS on each of Counts One (1), Two (2), and Three (3), to be served concurrently.

The Sixty (60) months imposed by the Court shall be served consecutively to the undischarged term of imprisonment in case No. CR 96-1069, U.S.D.C, Central District of California.

USA vs. STUART McCOYDocket No.: CR 13-837 SJO

The Court orders that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary mental health treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the Defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years on each of Counts One (1), Two (2), and Three (3) of the First Superseding Information, all terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 05-01;
2. During the period of community supervision the Defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payments;
3. The Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
4. The Defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state or federal law or ordinance;
5. The Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The Defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. The Defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment facility by the treatment provider, with approval from the Probation Officer;
7. The Defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. He shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;
8. During the period of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the consent of Defendant and his counsel, may place the Defendant in a residential drug treatment program to treat Defendant's underlying substance abuse disorder and also mental health disorders. The treatment may include psychiatric services, counseling and also substance abuse testing. Defendant shall participate in outpatient substance abuse treatment. He shall remain in the program until discharged by the Director and the Probation Officer;
9. The Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligations. In addition, the Defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation; and
6. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name.

///

The Court strongly recommends that Defendant be housed at the Santa Ana facility pending designation by the Bureau of Prisons.

USA vs. STUART McCOYDocket No.: CR 13-837 SJO

The Court advises the defendant of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below).

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

While the defendant is on probation or supervised release pursuant to this judgment:

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime;
2. the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the written permission of the court or probation officer;
3. the defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
4. the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
5. the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
6. the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
7. the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment;
8. the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
9. the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed or administered;
10. the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
11. the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
12. the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
13. the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
14. as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to conform the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
15. the defendant shall, upon release from any period of custody, report to the probation officer within 72 hours;
16. and, for felony cases only: not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

USA vs. STUART McCOYDocket No.: CR 13-837 SJO

☒ The defendant will also comply with the following special conditions pursuant to General Order 01-05 (set forth below).

STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The defendant shall pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution, however, are not applicable for offenses completed prior to April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant shall pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. §3613.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. §3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence:
 - Private victims (individual and corporate),
 - Providers of compensation to private victims,
 - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns or a signed release authorizing their disclosure; and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income and expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant shall not apply for any loan or open any line of credit without prior approval of the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall maintain one personal checking account. All of defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into this account, which shall be used for payment of all personal expenses. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request.

The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the Probation Officer until all financial obligations imposed by the Court have been satisfied in full.

These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this judgment.
